

Bios for Robert Half Speakers – Professional Development Session on May 5, 2017

Anthony J. Pami is a Senior Client Service Director with Robert Half Management Resources, specializing in the placement of highly skilled finance & accounting professionals as well as HR & business systems professionals on a project or consulting basis. Prior to joining Robert Half, Anthony worked for nearly twenty years within finance & accounting in areas of increasing responsibility. He began his career at KPMG and earned his license as a CPA while there for six years. Subsequently, he worked for Wyeth Pharmaceuticals and most recently, worked for ADP as the Senior Director of Financial Reporting and then Regional Controller for ADP's $250M National Account business.

Matt Durkin is a Senior Vice President with Robert Half International and oversees both the New York and New Jersey markets. His primary areas of focus are the company's three financial lines of business: Robert Half Finance & Accounting, Accountemps and Robert Half Management Resources. Since joining Robert Half in May of 2000, he has served in various capacities and held roles of increasing responsibilities in the Central NJ, Jersey City and Midtown New York Offices. Prior to joining Robert Half, he worked for UBS in the Commission Accounting office. Matt earned his BS from Marist College in Poughkeepsie, NY.