Passion 4 People is a women owned boutique staffing firm providing companies with talented finance & accounting professionals on an interim and permanent basis. We want you to succeed. When you are losing sleep over the work that isn't getting done and need a strong, capable professional to take the problem off your plate, think of Passion 4 People. Our talented accounting & finance professionals, averaging over 15 years of experience, will complete your project or simply tackle any work backlog, quickly, efficiently, and with passion. And collectively, our management team has over 40 years of experience helping clients reach their goals, enabling us to find you the best fit solutions. We run lean & mean. We have no brick & mortar office or large internal team which means we can pay our professionals more and charge our clients less. We give back. Every quarter we donate 2% of our revenue to charities selected by our clients and professionals. So, by partnering with us, you too are giving back. And what could be more passionate than that?

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Ina Rose founded Passion 4 People in 2014. Prior to P4P she was Office Managing Partner of Tatum where she had responsibility for the New Jersey and Pennsylvania markets. Ina began her career at Deloitte where as a CPA she performed audits for a variety of clients in the healthcare, manufacturing, retail and financial services industries. After a few years of consulting and skiing, she joined Resources Global Professionals where for 13 years, she held positions of increasing responsibility including Managing Director. She started and led the NJ practice, developed business and grew it to $40M in revenue. She hired the NJ team, developed large Fortune 1000 companies into clients and managed the relationships. As well as consulted with clients to determine project scope and appropriate staffing. She also led the Global Training and Development for the company for a period as well as created the company's Corporate Social Responsibility initiative.
