Mike Miele is a Consulting Actuary with Healthcare Analytics (HCA), a division of Gallagher Benefits Services, Inc. He has significant experience in all aspects of employer health and welfare consulting with a specialty in medical management, prescription drugs, and data warehousing. His clients include large self-funded employers, health plans, specialty managed care providers, and pharmaceutical manufacturers.

Prior to joining Gallagher in 2005, Mike founded PatientCentrix in 1995. PatientCentrix was a medical management and data management provider which was later sold to SHPS Healthcare. Mike is one of the founders of predictive modeling as it applies to health care medical management and health insurance underwriting. Prior to founding PatientCentrix, Mike held various positions in the management consulting and insurance industries.

Mike has significant knowledge in Health and Welfare consulting to large self-funded employers including underwriting and budgeting, plan design and insurance carrier and specialty provider vendor selection, as well as Prescription Drug Benefits Management Procurement and ongoing consulting. He has experience involving Medical Management and Data Warehousing, as well as systems analysis and claims data integration for Plan Sponsors, HMO's, and Disease Management Providers.

Mike's prior experiences include being the Senior Vice President / General Manager of Landacorp. In addition, he was the CEO and Founder of PatientCentrix; a Senior Manager with Price Waterhouse; a Consulting Actuary with William M. Mercer; a Consulting Actuary with Towers Perrin; and an Actuarial Student with Prudential.

Mike earned his B.S. in Mathematics and Applied Statistics at the University of Michigan in 1987. He is a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA) and a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA).
