

Joseph P. Reynolds

Vice President
Team Leader
Financial Services Group

Current Responsibilities:

Joe is a Vice President and Team Leader in the New York office of Aon's Financial Services Group (FSG). He specializes in the development and implementation of Management and Professional Liability Insurance placements on behalf of large complex public and private companies, and has extensive experience with Financial Institutions.

Joe's current brokerage responsibilities include servicing an existing book of business, generating new business opportunities, providing professional advice to clients and peers, M&A due diligence, developing/maintaining positive relationships with clients and underwriters, and developing/executing renewal strategies.

Prior Industry Experience:

Joe has been with Aon FSG for approximately 9 years. Prior to joining Aon, Joe worked in various roles in the Risk Management Department of Macy's, Inc.

Education:

MBA, Finance, Seton Hall University
BS, Finance, Rutgers University

Professional Designations:

Licensed property and casualty insurance broker in numerous jurisdictions