Building a Finance Community

One person at time; One company at time...for over 90 years

In Los Angeles, FEI is focused on expanding its community of financial executives. Our events come to life through peer to peer networking. Together we curate programming & events to sharpen our skills. Together we help the community through public service. Together we invite our friends to join. Together we help each other find peak performance.

1

NETWORKING

Speakers, community service, and social events offer the opportunity to connect

2

EDUCATION

One place for all of your professional education needs

3

FRIENDSHIP

Our field can be isolating. FEI offers an instant buddy network

Connections since 1931

Members bring inspired ways to connect and grow

Since 1931 - FEI was born during the Great Depression and has endured during wars, the industrial revolution, great innovation, space exploration, technology explosion, Great Recession, pandemic, Great Resignation... Finance executives are resilient as is our professional organization.

Today... This is a group that likes to learn together, help together and be together. Whether it is our Speaker Series, summer hikes at iconic vistas, workshops for deep dives on important or emerging topics, volunteer service or comedy shows, our group likes to be with one another.

FEI – LA PREPARES A MEAL FOR FAMILIES AT THE RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

Led by past president, Paz Hernandez, a group from FEI - LA prepared a meal for the nearly 75 people staying at the Los Angeles Ronald McDonald House on a summer night in August 2022.

The families staying at the Ronald McDonald House are receiving care for their child at one of the city’s local hospitals. Finding a hot meal upon returning from a long day at the hospital is cited as a “moving” gesture. One family said, “It is moving when complete strangers make time in their day to cook a meal for us. Thank you!”
