MEMBER PROFILE | Jen Ford

Jen Ford currently serves as Chief Financial Officer for TurnKey Vacation Rentals, a tech-enabled full-service vacation rental property management company. TurnKey, a leading vacation rental hospitality brand, combines smart home technology with local in-market service to manage more than 3,500 premier homes in 55 U.S. travel destinations. As CFO, Jen is responsible for leading the finance, accounting, business intelligence, and human resources organizations. Prior to TurnKey, Jen most recently served as Vice President of Finance for Snap Kitchen and as Senior Director of Investor Relations at HomeAway.

Outside of work, you can find Jen behind the lens of her Nikon camera, on the ski slopes in Park City, or exploring a new city with her husband and two daughters. Jen has lived and worked in Singapore and the United Kingdom, and her professional and personal travels have taken her around the world. Her passion for travel brings a sense of purpose to her role at TurnKey, where she is committed to helping homeowners achieve their financial goals, and at the same time, helping travelers create memories of a lifetime.

MEET OUR SPEAKER

Rob Lynch is a seasoned CEO, Entrepreneur, and Certified Gazelles International Coach. Prior to founding Burst Consulting, he led four start-up companies, all of which were acquired, including Innography, BetweenMarkets and ClearCommerce. As an experienced CEO in industries including technology, food & food service, financial and hospitality, he has moved his companies to adopting new business operating models for increased monetization, raised outside financing while operating companies in a capital efficient manner, opened foreign markets and created highly profitable reseller and channel partner programs, and led the integration of several acquisitions.
