FEI vision

FEI will continue to be the professional association of choice for the corporate finance executive. We strive to be the most contemporary, dynamic and proactive organization of its kind. We are a powerful network centered on a vibrant Internet community and local meetings. FEI is member-service oriented, with value for dues a top priority. Indeed, the cost of membership is dwarfed by the cost saving ideas and value-building themes that accrue to our members through their participation in FEI. We strive to be the eyes and ears of the typical finance officer facing the day-to-day challenge of enhancing his or her shareholders' investment. We help members anticipate and react to change, acquire new resources to enhance shareholder value, and build

"FEI is without a doubt the premier professional organization I have been associated with over the years. The regular chapter meetings are enlightening and topical as well as a great networking opportunity. Combined with the helpful online resources, FEI membership continues to be a valuable resource."

Member since 2001

the personal skills needed to further their careers. We do this by providing information through diverse forms of communication, knowledge of evolving trends and issues and high-quality programs. We help to identify new opportunities for peer networking, and provide for effective advocacy through representation before legislators and regulators.

meet the speaker

Arthur Johnson, Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director, University of Texas at Austin

A native of Thomasville, Georgia, Arthur Johnson is an accomplished administrator with more than 19 years of experience at four institutions in the "Autonomy 5" Conferences. Arthur came to the University of Texas from 1999 through 2005 to work with Coach Mack Brown. In January of 2011, Johnson returned to Austin, TX to direct football operations at the University of Texas. Johnson worked with Coach Charlie Strong to lead the on-boarding and transition of the new football staff. He was promoted to Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director in June of 2014. He serves as the sports administrator for Baseball, Men's Basketball, Football, Men's Golf, and Swimming & Diving. His many responsibilities include facilities, capital planning for facilities, and game operations.

Prior to returning to Austin in 2011, Johnson served as the Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations at his alma mater, the University of Georgia from February 2005 – January 2011.

After graduating from Thomasville High School in 1988, Johnson enrolled at the University of Georgia where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Risk Management and Insurance and a Masters of Education in Business Education. While in graduate school, he began his career in Athletics while working in the Football and Event Management offices. In addition to positions at the University of Georgia and the University of Texas, Johnson has been employed at Arizona State University and the University of North Carolina.
